

SYRACUSE LITTLE FREE LIBRARIES

Donation Guide

Have books you'd like to donate? Make sure they fall into one of the genres below.

POPULAR READING
Best sellers from a number of genres; books that continue to be popular over time; classics.
Box Office Reads	Books about recent or popular movies, or on which movies have been based.
CHILDREN/YOUNG ADULT
Books for younger and teen readers; books that deal with issues facing young people.
Comics/Books in comic form	Books with pages illustrated in panels popular in comic books.
ACTIVITIES/CRAFTS & HOW-TO
Books with instructions or guides on popular activities for all ages (for example: gardening, sewing, painting, learning about nature).
Technology	Books on how to operate modern technology. Should not be more than 4 years old.
Cooking	Books featuring recipes and techniques. Books by popular TV chefs could be of interest.
HEALTH & WELLNESS
Books on healthy eating, exercise, or living with diseases & ailments. Should not be more than 10 years old.
Self-Help	Books focused on giving the reader the tools to navigate particular issues (for example: the death of a loved one).
SPORTS
Books about particular athletes, teams, or the history of a certain sport. Teams and athletes from the Syracuse or CNY area are best.
REGION-SPECIFIC
Books specifically about life in Syracuse, NY. May include historical events in Syracuse, info about the founding & history of the city, or its geography.
HISTORIC
Biographies of famous people, accounts of historical events (that are not sports or region-specific). Books should not be obviously outdated (for example: referring to the USSR as currently a country).
ART
Very broad category including books with images of works by a particular artist, or a type of art. Also includes books about music & composers, poetry & drama (plays). Notable artists particular to the Syracuse area are especially desired.
RELIGION
Religious books, or books with a religious inspiration or tone. Books based on descriptions & histories of religions.
SPECIAL REQUESTS
There are certain types of books we'd like to collect for all the genres listed above. They are as follows:
Large print	Books with large print font are useful for readers who may have trouble reading smaller text.
Adult learners	Books for adults with low literacy levels help us promote literacy among readers of all ages.
Spanish language	Books written in Spanish.
